Builders Hardware Manufacturers Association Hosts Annual Spring Meeting in Coral Gables

New York, NY (April 8, 2022) -- The Builders Hardware Manufacturers Association (BHMA®) will hold its annual Spring Technical Committee Week from May 17th through the 19th in Coral Gables, Florida, at the Biltmore Hotel.

“At this meeting, BHMA members review current standards that are in the revision process, in addition to identifying product areas where new standards are required,” said BHMA Executive Director Ralph Vasami. “We will also be discussing new and future initiatives for BHMA in areas such as energy consumption and other new technologies.”

Specific areas that will be reviewed at this meeting are as follows:

- A156.12 Interconnected Locks
- A156.25 Electrified Locking Devices
- A156.28 Master Keying
- A156.42 Acoustic
- A156.32 Standard for Integrated Door Opening Assemblies
- A156.10 Standard for Power Operated Pedestrian Doors

Several other committees will also meet throughout the week, including BHMA’s Marketing Communications Committee and the Codes, Government, and Industry Affairs Committee.
